President's Message

This is to bring to you a most gladsome word of welcome. I would say that word for all those who have been to Montreat, for those whose affections and interests turn towards it, and for those of us who have the pleasure of living in Montreat and wait eagerly to receive you as you come. I feel confident that our life and work and play together will be a joyful and happy experience for all of us.

The Church and friends have made big investments in Montreat. Our campus and buildings are beautiful beyond description, but best of all are the consecrated men and women who have made the faculty and the groups of lovely girls who have been here and who have built for us something we call "The Montreat Spirit." We treasure this very much.

Our faculty and staff are selected with great care. They have chosen to work in a Christian institution and desire for it to share in all of its life the Spirit of Jesus Christ Himself. It is therefore right and proper that we should select the young women who are allowed to come. We seek those who will accept the Christian opportunities which are here and will add to that which others have done through the years. We want you to speak with pride in having the honor of coming to Montreat.

The simple rules you will find in this booklet are the outgrowth of fine young women living together. You will find that life is much happier when you observe them, and you will have the satisfaction, too, that you are making for a more beautiful Montreat.

All of us at Montreat want to help you. Especially, I would say, if ever there is anything I can do, kindly give me the opportunity to try. We open wide our door and welcome you.

Most cordially yours,

J. RUPERT McGREGOR, President

Dear Montreater,

There are so many ways in which people are welcomed—by friendly words, acts, and smiles. We want to include all of these in our welcome to you.

You will feel welcomed only when you become a real part of the campus life, when you share many happy experiences with us, when you form lasting friendships, and, of course, when you get snowed under with lessons. All these combined make up our college life.

Summertime passes swiftly away—so we'll see you soon.

Sincerely,

EVELYN HENNESSEE, President

10. Week End Visiting On Campus:

(b) Any visiting after 11:00 p. m. or before 7:00 a. m. is considered the same as spending the night out.

(d) A student visiting or permitting visiting against rules shall be penalized.

CONCLUSION

The first four weeks will be considered a period of Orientation for Freshmen and transfers, who in order to become self-governing, must prove themselves capable of such a responsibility. At the end of the four weeks period, each student will sign the pledge of honor and pass an examination on the regulations.

The Student Government is to help you, not to catch you.

Remember that we have all been Freshmen ourselves, and are eager to help.

The faculty is waiting to like you. Give them the opportunity.

Remember we do not know what you can do. Show us by entering into the college activities through which you can best express your personality.

This is the place to make friends. Don't go around with one girl exclusively.

Pay on time all dues. You are not a full-fledged member of any organization unless you do.

Formal or semi-formal dress is expected for concerts and special Saturday night programs.

Honor is too dear to be compromised for popularity, or for the fear of being unpleasant.

Courtesy is an indispensable attribute to Christian character.

Remember that your health is important; take care of it.

Remember to read the bulletin boards several times each day. It is our daily paper.

We shall appreciate your playing only classical music and hymns on Sunday.

Absolute quiet and attention is expected in chapel, church, and vespers.

"Let all things be done decently and in order."

A student who plans to take a cut or cuts shall secure a written statement listing her earned cuts from the Office of the Dean of College. This statement is filed with her written request to leave the campus in the Office of the Dean of Students.

If a student absents herself with adequate reason from an announced or unannounced written lesson, she may make it up upon paying a fee of $1.00 at the college office. She must present her instructor with a receipt from the office stating that such a fee has been paid before the work is made up.

If a student absents herself without adequate reason from a test announced a week before, she receives a grade of "F" on that test without the privilege of making it up.

If a student absents herself without adequate reason from an unannounced written lesson, she receives a grade of "F" on that written lesson but such a grade is not to count more than 1/20 of the term's grade.

ORGANIZATION AND ACTIVITIES

The Student Christian Association is made up of the entire student body of the College. The Council acts as an administrative body of the organization. The students are divided into the various groups and through these smaller divisions of the organization more efficient work can be done. These groups are divided at the beginning of the year and thus each person has an active part in the Student Christian Association.

Vesper services which are planned and carried out by the students are held each Sunday night. The aim is to have each girl participate in these programs. Sometimes we have outdoor programs, at other times candle-light services, and quite frequently missionaries and other guest speakers are secured.

Throughout the year the S.C.A. seeks to aid students in Christian living by wholesome recreation and fellowship.

Dear Montreat Girls,

To each of you comes a special greeting from your Athletic Association. Athletics are important in our daily activities, because we feel wholesome recreation is a vital part in the successful development of an individual.

The Athletic Board is a group which plans daily activities in which you will be enabled to acquire skills, to have fun, and always to uphold sportsmanship.

Even if you haven't played in many sports before, here in Montreat you have the opportunity to learn, and we encourage you to take part in each of the team, individual and dual activities. Mountain trails and beautiful views from mountain tops thrill those who enjoy hiking. Read the athletic bulletin board daily to keep up-to-date on the regular schedule of sports.

May each of you acquire that "Montreat Spirit" through the help of your Athletic Association, so that your days in Montreat College will be the happiest yet.

Sincerely,

JEANETTE NASH, President

Athletic Association.

SPORTS

One of the biggest things on the campus here is our sports program — and what a wonderful program it is! The student body is divided into five tribes which carry on spirited competition all year long in both team and individual sports. In the fall there are fast-moving soccer games and later on the gym rocks with excitement at the basketball games. The sports calendar moves on through volleyball, ping pong, badminton, shuffleboard and other games, finishing up with softball in the spring.

Not the least of these sports by far is hiking—by the way, don't forget to bring along your jeans and stout shoes! (And a camera too, because you'll really see some beautiful sights.)

Another thing you'll want to have at the first of school so you can take advantage of the good weather is your tennis racket.

And archery? How about that? If you have the equipment, bring it along.

For those girls who have proven themselves outstanding in sportsmanship and athletic ability, awards are made of numerals, letters and chevrons. Then at the end of the year comes the most talked-about event of all. The cup is presented to the tribe winning the most tournaments and in other ways accumulating the most points. What an exciting moment that is!

"For when the one Great Scorer comes to write against your name.

He marks—not that you won or lost—
but how you played the game."

School Songs

ALMA MATER

(Tune: Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms)

How dear to our hearts will the memory be
Of the days we have spent in thy care,
When within thy dear halls we have lingered a while
All thy gifts and thy blessings to share.
So the memory of thee will ever remain,
While we think of each dear hallowed scene;
And the bonds of true loyalty, blest through the years,
Our affections will ever keep green.

Then, to thee, Alma Mater, we'll ever be true,
Though the coming years scatter us far;
And the ideals you taught us will ever be bright
Shining out as our life's guiding star.
We will cherish thy name wherever we roam,
And forever thy praises repeat.
Hail to thee, Alma Mater, our happiest days
Are the days we have spent in Montreat.

MONTREAT GIRL

Now when a Montreat girl walks down the street,
She looks a hundred per from head to feet—
She has a word, a smile, a winning way, and
When you see her, boy, you'll recognize her and you'll say—
Now there's a girl I'd like to know,
She has that Montreat spirit, pep, and go,
And just to look at her is quite a treat,
It's hard to beat,
A MONTREAT GIRL!

M-O-N-T-R-E-A-T

M-o-n-t-r-e-a-t, Montreat! Rah!
Our Montreat College, we'll sing to you,
Pride of Carolina's land,
We love you, yes we do, dear Montreat.
Long may we cherish thee,
Love and adore.
Sing praise and honor for ever more.
Oh, see those girls of Montreat
A-standing in a line,
And all of them are mighty, mighty fine,
They know just how to work there;
They know just how to play,
Oh, Montreat girls, we'll cheer you every time!
Now Fassifern's not slow;
Flora MacDonald's on the go;
And Winthrop's mighty, mighty fine;
But give us, oh, give us,
Oh, how I wish you would,
That dear old Montreat College every time!

MONTREAT

Montreat, we're always thinking of you,
Montreat,
We'll tell the world we love you.
Don't forget we're yelling for you.
We will play, and sing, and dance and everything
For Montreat.
You are our inspiration; days are never blue.
And after all is said and done,
There is really only one.
Oh Montreat College, it's you!

BLUE AND GOLD

Blue and gold of old Montreat,
With love for you our hearts will beat—
A candle light shining where'ere we dwell,
To the friends that we all love so well—
We're thankful for skies of blue,
The breeze that whispers its love to you,
We hear their voices calling,
With love enthralling—
O DEAR MONTREAT!

COME ON MONTREAT

Come on, old Montreat, for we want you to win.
Cross that goal and back again.
Tackle that girl like a cone of cream,
And strut your stuff for the Montreat team.
Chorus:
Montreat College, fighting for the finish,
Montreat College, never say die.
Montreat College fighting for the finish,
We're all here and we'll all stand by.
Look at that girl just a-running up the place,
Look at those frowns all over her face,
Guess she knows that we're going to win,
So giddy-up, Montreat, and do it again.

HIWASSEE TRIBE SONG

Over hill, over dale,
As we hit the grassy trail
The Hiwassees go rolling along.
Up and down, in and out,
And reverse the field about
The Hiwassees go rolling along.
So it's Hi-Hi-He
In Hiwassee Varsity,
Shout out your yells loud and strong,
Rah! Rah!
For where 'ere we go
We will always know
The Hiwassees go rolling along.

MOHAWK TRIBE SONG

Mohawks all fall in line,
Fight for Montreat,
Take your place on the field
And let your motto be-e-e
Lose no—no never
Fight to the end.
Roll up the score today
And fight the others
Fight then till we win.
Rah! Rah!

CHEROKEE TRIBE SONG

We're loyal to you Cherokees,
we're steadfast and true Cherokees.
We'll back you to stand
'Gainst the best in the land,
'Cause we know you've got the game, Cherokees.
Rah! Rah!
So get in that game, Cherokees,
Go fight in the same, Cherokees,
Our tribe is our fame protector
On girls for we expect—a victory from Cherokees
Rah! Rah!

CHOCTAW TRIBE SONG

We are the Choctaws
We're out to win,
We've got the vigor
We've Got the vim.
If you're out to see a wow
Well, come on now, gang,
We'll show them how.
For when we play
The game is a cinch,
We leave the others
Warming the bench.
Here's to Victory!
Rah! Rah!!
And here's to our tribe, Choctaw!

NAVAJO TRIBE SONG

Now, when the Navajos all fall in line,
You'll have to say our tribe is mighty fine.
We are the girls who play in every game
And that's the way we keep our fame,
    our fame, our fame.
We're going to be right there now and again.
We're going to fight with all our might and main.
So if we pull, girls, we can win the score—
Forevermore,
It's NAVAJOS!

MAY DAY SONG

She comes, she comes, our radiant queen,
And joyfully we sing.
She spreads the hills and fields with green,
Our lady of the spring.
Let all the universe rejoice,
Upon this gladsome day,
And spread the tidings with one voice,
'Tis May, May, May!
'Tis May, May, May!
Winter winds are far away,
All the earth is bright and gay.
And joyfully, again we say,
'Tis May, May, May!

7. Boogie Woogie truck on down
Come on Montreat
We're going to town.
Swing 'em to the left;
Swing 'em to the right;
Montreat, Montreat;
Fight, fight, fight.

8. Montreat College is hard to beat;
They got pads on their shoulders
And wings on their feet.
They work and they fight
But they don't mind it;
'Cause Montreat College is solid behind it.
Montreat, Montreat,
What makes your big team so hard?

9. Can't you shake it?
Can't you break it?
Can't you North Carolina shake it?
Can't you boogie to the left?
Can't you boogie to the right?
Can't you yea team, yea team,
Fight, fight, fight?
We can shake it.
We can break it.
We can North Carolina shake it.
We can boogie to the left.
We can boogie to the right.
We can yea team, yea team,
Fight, fight, fight!

10. Choo-choo, choo-choo get off the track
For goodness sake don't hold us back.
Halt 'em, stop 'em, beat 'em right.
Montreat, Montreat,
Fight, fight, fight!

11. Big Apple, Little Apple, Susie-Q?
Come on Montreat, we're pulling for you.
Pulling from the left,
Pulling from the right,
Montreat, Montreat,
Fight, fight, fight!

12. Who's gonna win, win,
Who's gonna win, win,
Who's gonna win, win, now?
We're gonna win, win,
We're gonna win, win,
We're gonna win, win, how?
Easy! Fight! Fight! Fight!

13. Your pep, your pep,
You've got it; now keep it.
Doggon it; don't lose it. (Three times)
Your pep, your pep, your pep!

14. With a racklety, acklety, shacklety town,
Who can pull old Montreat down?
Nobody, nobody, yea!
Nobody, nobody, yea!
When you're up, you're up,
When you're down, you're down,
When you're up against Montreat,
You're upside down!

15. Leader: Is everybody happy?
All: Well, yes!
Leader: Is anybody downhearted?
All: Well, no!
Leader: Well give the locomotive and give it slow.
M-O-N-T-R-E-A-T (Spelling three times, getting faster each time.)

MONTREAT, MONTREAT, MONTREAT!

16. Leader: Hey gang, hey gang!
All: Hey, hey!
Leader: Hey gang, hey gang!
All: Hey, hey!
Leader: What's the matter with the team?
All: The team's okay!
Leader: Who says so?
All: Everybody!
Leader: Who's everybody?
All: Montreat College.
Leader: Well, fifteen rahs for Montreat College.
Rah! Rah! Rah! (Fifteen times.)
Montreat! Montreat! Montreat!

17. Give a yell,
Give a yell,
Give a good substantial yell!
And when we yell, we yell like this,
And this is what we yell:
Amend, a mend, amendiago, sandiago,
Boom! Boom! Rah! Rah!
Montreat!

Commencement Songs

PROCESSIONAL

The children of the King are we,
The children of the King;
His emblem bearers we would be,
And so his banner bring;
Its colors gleam all gloriously,
As forth its folds we fling;
The children of the King are we,
The children of our King.

O heed with us the happy call
To worship of our King.
Come join us in His temple all
Who hear His church bells ring;
Your souls shall feel His blessing fall,
And know His comforting;
O heed with us the happy call
To worship of our King.

The earth, it is His garden fair,
The garden of the King;
Where flowers and little children share
His love for everything;
The whole wide world lies in His care,
Beneath His brooding wing;
The earth, it is His garden fair,
The garden of the King.
Our lives are links of years and days,
Wherein to serve our King;
Like Him, to help in loving ways,
While homeward journeying;
Our lives, our lives, shall sing His praise,
As now our voices sing;
Our lives are links of years and days,
Wherein to serve our King.

(The music for this was composed by Mrs. Crosby Adams.)

RECESSIONAL

BRIGHTLY GLEAMS OUR BANNER

Brightly gleams our banner
Pointing to the sky,
Waving wand'rers onward
To their home on high.
Journeying o'er the desert
Gladly thus we pray;
And with hearts united
Take our heavenward way.

Jesus, Lord and Master,
At Thy sacred feet,
Here with hearts rejoicing
See Thy children meet;
Often we have left Thee
Often gone astray;
Keep us mighty Saviour,
In the narrow way.

All our days direct us
In the way we go,
Lead us on victorious
Over every foe;
Bid Thine angels shield us
When the storm clouds low'r,
Pardon, Lord, and save us
In the last dread hour.

Then with saints and angels
May we join above,
Off'ring pray'rs and praises
At Thy throne of love;
When the toil is over
Then come rest and peace,
Jesus in His beauty,
Songs that never cease.

Refrain: Brightly gleams our banner
Pointing to the sky,
Waving mortals onward
To their home on high.
